

ATVG Welcomes New Association President

ATVG members welcomed Mayor Jerry Latch of Corinth, Mississippi as the association's new president on Thursday, November 20th in Tunica, Mississippi at the Annual Membership Meeting. Mayor Latch told the group that he is excited about serving as president of the ATVG and is looking forward to working with the membership in 2009.

"I have served as Mayor of the City of Corinth for the past 14 years, and in 2002, served as Chairman of North Mississippi Mayors Association. I am presently serving on the Executive Board of Directors of Mississippi Municipal League and Mississippi Municipal Service Co. Liability Board. I have also received my certificate as a Certified Elected Official. I look forward to serving as President of ATVG and working with the executive director and all other members of the Association in the 7 state region that TVA serves."
