

TVA Invites the Tennessee Valley to Talk “Green”

TVA recently announced the formation of a new Environmental Information Center (EIC), that is available to anyone who needs TVA-related environmental information or has questions regarding a variety of environmental issues. The EIC is open between the hours of 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. EST and 7:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. CST and can also be accessed by dialing 1-800-882-5263 or at the web site address: <http://www.tva.com/environment/eic>.

The EIC is staffed by the TVA’s Office of Environment and Research and is designed to answer your questions with accurate information encompassing a number of TVA’s environmental areas. These include: Recreation – Shoreline actions and issues – Permitting procedures – Reservoir land plan information – Water quality – Archaeological information – Environmental education – Renewable energy – Sport fishing activities and other environmental issues.

“We invite you to give us a call or access our Web site and ask your questions. We are committed to providing timely responses to your inquiries. Sharing environmental information helps all of us enjoy, preserve and protect the natural resources of the Tennessee Valley region now and for generations to come” stated Anda A. Ray, TVA ‘s Senior Vice President Office of Environment and Research.
